Kentuckiana Metroversity Library Council Policy for Reciprocal Library Privileges

1. All persons holding currently valid identification cards issued by any member institution in Kentuckiana Metroversity will have library privileges extended to them at each Metroversity institution.
2. Presentation of a current institutional identification card is required to establish the user as an authorized borrower.
3. Each Metroversity library will be responsible for its constituents' use of other member libraries.
4. This policy will be effective upon the written acceptance by the Head Librarian of member institutions in Kentuckiana Metroversity.
